

It takes a Village

The Crestview Neighborhood Association is the community's representative body. It serves as a liaison with the the city and local authorities, is a sounding board for community concerns and issues, and plans events to create stronger community ties. It maintains a website with community information and resources, and hosts the neighborhood email chat.

Please consider joining - our voices are stronger together!!

These are some of the benefits and services that are available for members:

- * Focus and advocacy on city-government decisions affecting Crestview residents
- * Partner with LAPD to enhance safety and reduce crime
- * Discounted rate for Alexander Protective Services car patrol
- * Town Hall Meetings
- * Neighborhood Social Events and Picnics
- * Neighborhood Watch Program
- * Block Captains to coordinate block specific issues
- * Publication of Crestview Community newsletter
- * Welcome Committee to greet new residents
